YHB's Falls Church Office Moves to Meet Growth Needs

Winchester, VA (April 7, 2021) — We are excited to share our Falls Church office is moving to a larger, modern and more easily accessible building 4 miles from its current location effective May 25th, 2021. Our new home will be just off of 495 and 50 at 3110 Fairview Park Dr, Suite 1100 Falls Church, VA 22042.

The new office space will house more than 40 YHB team members, while still providing room for social distancing. The move will offer much needed space for the locations accelerated growth of clients and staff and is much more easily accessible.

“We are excited to plant roots in a space really designed to fit our culture better, yet remain in a convenient area for clients,” says Scott Moulden, Managing Partner of YHB. “The move affirms our commitment to the area as a community-based CPA and advisory firm with global capabilities.”

The new space was completely renovated to better reflect and promote an environment where team members feel empowered to utilize the latest in innovative resources. The suite features the latest in conferencing technology and multiple collaboration spaces for staff and clients to utilize. Additionally, the building will offer team members a complimentary gym and wooded walking trails around the building. While many of our team members are working remotely due to the COVID-19 pandemic, staff and clients who are utilizing the office will have adequate social distancing space and cleaning procedures will remain in place.

Our final day at the old Arlington Boulevard address will be May 19th. We will begin accepting mail and in-person meetings at our new location, 3110 Fairview Park Dr, Suite 1100, Falls Church, VA 22042, May 25th.
