YHB Expands Northern Virginia Presence with New Principal

Winchester, VA (June 3, 2021) — The shareholders of YHB have voted to admit Riley O’Neil, CPA as Principal effective June 1st, 2021.

“The Shareholders and I are thankful for the leadership Riley has already exhibited and look forward to watching him grow as a Principal,” says Scott Moulden, Managing Partner of YHB. “Riley has been committed to the Northern Virginia market for the last nine years where he has developed a large network. We are looking forward to seeing him continue the Firm’s reach as a Principal now.”

Riley has over nine years of public accounting experience working with and advising high net worth individuals and various types of private businesses. Additionally, he has become a leader within YHB helping lead our Government Contracting niche. Riley is a member of the Loudoun County Chamber of Commerce and actively involved with networking groups around Washington, D.C.

“I am honored to take on this leadership opportunity and to serve our current and future clients in this new capacity,” said Riley. “YHB has been my home for the last nine years and I have enjoyed working with the amazing team here. The Northern Virginia market continues to grow and having roots here has brought us some fantastic opportunities. I am grateful to help steward YHB’s legacy for the next several decades.”

Riley will be based out of YHB’s Leesburg office. The firm now has a total of 36 principals throughout eight locations.
