YHB Expands Reach in Maryland with Baltimore Merger

Winchester, VA (August 3, 2021) — Yount, Hyde and Barbour (YHB) is delighted to share we have merged with Rowles & Company, LLP (Rowles) in Baltimore, MD.

“With the inclusion of Rowles to YHB, we are excited to say we are officially a Maryland firm,” says Scott Moulden, Managing Partner of YHB. “We already serve many financial institutions, construction firms, and not-for-profits in Maryland. Finding a partner with a similar culture and skillset to officially plant roots in the neighboring state is a win-win for everyone. We are confident our passionate client service and dedication to our team members will help us serve the great people of Maryland.”

Rowles & Company, LLP was established in 1928 with a rich history of serving clients throughout Maryland and Washington, D.C. Rowles offers clients a variety of accounting services, specifically to financial institutions, engineering and architecture firms, small businesses, not-for-profit organizations, individuals, estates, and trusts.

“Our staff are eager to join forces with the team at YHB. We have worked alongside them over the years at shared financial institution clients, so we are familiar with the quality of their work. Finding another firm with the dedication to client relations, community and staff was what helped make this decision easier. Both Joe (Musumeci, Partner at Rowles) and I look forward to being able to offer our clients even more resources as YHB and Rowles become one,” said Steven D. Halpern, Managing Partner of Rowles.

This merger will make the Baltimore office YHB’s ninth location. As a Regional Leader and Fastest Growing Firm in the United States (according to Accounting Today’s 2021 survey), this will strengthen YHB’s foothold as a multiregional accounting firm with offices spanning across Virginia and now Baltimore. The addition of Rowles to YHB also expands its expertise in serving credit unions as Rowles professionals provide a range of services to financial institutions of all types.

The Rowles professional staff of 11 will be joining YHB and continue to serve clients out of their current 8100 Sandpiper Circle, Suite 308 location in Baltimore, Maryland.
